Madeira

Funchal, November 3-9, 2014

Highway 'Till The End!

Das Autobahn is the winning team of this year's Teams' Tournament. Mads Eyde, Dennis Bilde, Nedju Buchlev and Sebastian Reim kept 'en route', winning all matches today, scoring 12.77, 17.50 and 16.90.

The Portuguese Dream Team 17 (Nuno Matos, Carlos Luiz, Rodrigo M Soares, Miguel Teixeira, Nuno Paz and Reinaldo Timoteo) also won all of their matches and climbed to 2nd place overall, with 156.58 VPs.

The winners - Das Autobahn

Today, team Multon (K Ward-Platt, Frank Multon, Peter Bertheau and Jessica Hayman) lost their first match against Das Autobahn and won the remaining two. It wasn't enough to keep them in second place. They finished 3rd, 1.75 VPs behind the Portuguese.

And all there is left for us to do is to have dinner together - another record-breaking event!

Hope you have all enjoyed the tournament and we wish you a pleasant trip back home.

See you next year!

The Madeira Bridge Open

by Hans Metselaar

There are bridge tournaments and then there is "Madeira". Having played all over the world makes the comparison to other events easy. The difference is that on Madeira you belong to the family. That is the feeling you get from the care and attention the organization is giving the participants. With eye to detail and in an impressive team effort the tournament grows from strength to strength. And rightly it should. Each and everyone in the committee is a staunch ambassador of this wonderful island. And so it is not only about the bridge, it is about culture, hospitality, friendship and more! It is a privilege to belong to this family.

Thank you all

by Ricardo Brandão Luiz

Having been involved in the Madeira Bridge Tournament since the last century when we had people like Omar Sharif, Benito Garozzo, Zia Mahmood, Rixie Markus, the Priday couple and many others, I feel that this year, this tournament has exploded not only in quantity (155 pairs and 68 teams) but also in quality.

It really was a pleasure to be able to meet people that have been coming to Madeira for years and obviously to be able to meet new people.

To the newcomers I wish that you got addicted to this tournament as all the good friends that come every year.

Madeira is a small island but with an enormous HEART, open to all the visitors, even those that get up on the wrong side of bed every morning.

Thank God that after a couple of nights in our beautiful island no one is able to be upset and, if nothing else helped, they got a "PONCHA" to put them on the right track.

I do wish my father was here to see the enormous success this Bridge Festival has become for he was not only a big aficionado of Bridge but also very proud of our hospitality.

Concerning the bridge itself all I can say is that I am lucky enough to have a very good friend for partner who excuses my bad temper.

To finish I hope you all had a nice stay in our island and wish to see you back next year, bringing your friends to the "PEARL OF THE ATLANTIC" and all I can promise you is that we will all be here to welcome you back.

Open Teams Session 3

In both rooms North played in Four Spades. In the Open Room Dennis Bilde received the lead of queen of Diamonds. He won with the ace and cashed three rounds of hearts discarding his diamonds, starting with the ace. East ruffed the third round and continued with another diamond ruffed in hand. Declarer now lead the trump king from his hand, taken by West who now blotted his copybook by not leading a club - the contract was now safe. In the closed room, however declarer was not so fortunate and suffered one off for thirteen IMPs out.

When West elected to open One Spade there would be no stopping him after partner showed his distributional support. The play was easy, declarer electing to ruff three hearts in hand. That was 11 IMPs to Das Autobahn who ran out winners 37 - 0 or 19.37 - 0.77 Vps.

The final board of the night again featured Das Autobahn but this time against Dream Team.

At both tables North ended in 3NT and received the lead of a small club won in hand with the ten. After cashing the ace and king of spades the nine of diamonds is played from the dummy - the moment of truth has arrived - take the right finesse and with some luck the contract will make. Take the wrong decision and you will go down. Which do you play and why? With the pips you have I can see a minute advantage in playing to the queen as that wins also when the jack is singleton in the East hand - not very likely.

I know that in the Open Room there had been no opposition bidding so declarer had no help there and he did not chose wisely. In the closed room declarer had some help with East getting in on the act. Declarer still had to guess right so when he led the nine of diamonds and West graciously covered, this solved all declarer's problems and that was 12 IMPs to the Dream Team

Charles, our Danish correspondent writes from Denmark (surprisingly) of a couple of deals that graced his bridge column.

East played ♣K then ♣A and continued the suit. Maria ruffed with ♥4!! The ♥A for East was the last trick for the defence. 10 tricks (620) and a score of 86%.

Most players ruffed with a heart honour hoping for ♥Ax in the West hand, but Maria had a clue. The contract can't make, as when in with the ♥A another club from West promotes a setting trump trick for East.

Nicely played.

The lead of the ♥7 was covered with ♥J taken with ♥K. ♥A and a heart followed. As a result of the opening Multi bid, declarer ruffed with ♠A, and ran ♠J to Skjoennemann's lovely single lady. A heart ruff in East killed the contract, as the defence still had a diamond trick to come. Down one and all the matchpoints for the Danes.
