The Danes Take The Lead!

The Danish team Movember (Mads Eyde, Dennis Bilde, Anders Hagen and Gregers Bjarnarson) leads the tournament with 128.31 VPs. They won all matches in the afternoon by 18.53, 15.23 and an impressive 20. Perhaps dinner didn't agree with them because they lost the first round in the evening by 4.0, but then they won the rest of the matches by 13.12 and 10.44.

The Austrian team Maxi (Sylvia Terraneo, Franz Terraneo, Josef Simon and Ilse-Betina Artmer) started the afternoon by getting 18.97. Next they met Movember and lost to them by 4.77.

Then they won the next three rounds by 14.68, 18.68 and 17.69. They ended the evening by losing the last match by 4.50. Maxi is now in second place, 3.57 VPs behind the leaders.

Team The Alliance (Connie Goldberg, Kauko Koistinen, Linda Molle and Marco Ter Laare) started from a more modest 20th place in the classification and won almost all of yesterday's matches, only losing to Maxi on the 8th round. They are now third, just 0.84 VPs behind the Austrians.

Today we have the last three matches of the tournament. 4 teams clearly lead the classification but it's not impossible for others to get there.

After the playing is over and the results published, we'll have the prize-giving at 8:00PM in the hall near the dining room. Then, at 9:00, the closing dinner.

The Longest Day

By Mark Horton & Ron Tacchi

Saturday is the one that tests the stamina and concentration levels of the players to the upmost. Judge for yourselves how the players were coping in Round 4.

In Round 4 Movember and Jansma were in opposition at table 1.

On Board 2, EW held ♠K98 ♥J7642 ♦K73 ♣82 facing ♠AQJ1072 ♥1085 ♦A5 ♣63.

In the Open Room, when East opened 2♠ South doubled with ♠54 ♥AK9 ♦Q1084 ♣KQJ4 and West's raise to 3♠ closed the auction.

South led the king of clubs, followed by the queen and when North followed with the five and ten South played three rounds of hearts, North ruffing for one down.

In the other room East started with 1♠ and West raised to 2♠ over South's double. North bid 3♣ and when East bid 3♠ South bid 4♣ - which was two down when the defenders collected two spades, two diamonds and a diamond ruff, giving Movember 6 IMPs.

If 2NT was a transfer to diamonds then it is likely 3♣ promised a fit, but South was unwilling to try the nine trick game.

Declarer was not hard pressed to collect eleven tricks, +150 but another 7 IMPs in the wrong column.

South led the two of spades, North pitching the two of clubs and declarer won with dummy's eight and played the nine of diamonds to the king and ace. South continued with the queen of clubs and declarer ruffed, and cashed the queen of diamonds.

Now the winning line is to play on hearts, but declarer made the natural looking play of ruffing a diamond (South pitched the nine of hearts) and playing a heart to the ace to ruff his remaining diamond.

South took the heart exit with the king and played the ace of clubs, forcing declarer to ruff. The three of hearts was ruffed by South and he exited with a club and waited for his trump trick, +50.

Declarer had to lose a heart, but he could ruff the losing diamond and the 3-3 heart break saw him home with another 10 IMPs.

Movember had scored a big win, 41-10 IMPs, 18.53-1.47 VP

Danish Pastry

"Ulla Korre Pedersen from Denmark, playing with Eric, her husband, had a great result on Board 19 in the first session of the Open Pairs." was the opening remark of my first article last year. This year Ulla has come to me with another tasty morsel of a story, again Board 19, and again about making thirteen tricks, but this time from Round 6 of the Teams.

After an auction not needing many green cards Eric ended in Six Hearts Doubled. After an excess of cogitation East led the jack of diamonds and that was all North needed to make thirteen tricks. He won in hand with the queen and crossed to dummy with a trump and ruffed a diamond, then drew trumps finishing in dummy and cashed the now established diamonds.

As you can imagine this deal caused a wide variance of results from +1310 to -1430. Also some strange results - somehow one North managed to go down in Five Hearts, whilst a West failed in Five Clubs.

Due to the large number of incorrectly entered scores on the third session of the Pairs' Tournament, the classification published on Daily Bulletin 4 has experienced severe changes. On Daily Bulletin 7, the final classification will be published.
